

Strengthening Teaching, Leading, and Learning

A Symposium for Leadership

As educational leaders, we think about change, how it will impact our responsibilities, and the leadership we will provide to advance performance and achievement of students and staff.

With a leadership team from your school or district, plan to join the commissioner, assistant commissioners, NJ Department of Education directors, and leaders of your associations and districts to hear about the impact and possibilities of a collective purpose: a systems approach and process for elevating school improvement.

Audience for this symposium includes: superintendents, assistant/associate superintendents, principals, teacher leaders, directors of curriculum & instruction, coordinators, supervisors, assistant principals, and board members.

We invite you to register for this Symposium.
